THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI K. C. LENKA): (a) Some complaints regarding sale of tickets to passengers by unauthorised agents at these stations have been received.

(b) Generally, passengers buy tickets from the large number of Railway booking counters provided for this purpose. Only some passengers approach unauthorised agents/touts in case of emergency who sell them tickets clandestinely in fake names on premium.

(c) Some reports of unauthorised agents/touts in Delhi area have been received but it is not true that these tickets are being procured by these unauthorised agents with the active connivance of Railway reservation clerks on duty at the booking counters.

(d) and (e) Surprise Checks/raids are conducted at reservation offices and platforms by Vigilance and Commercial Inspectors against unauthorised sellers of tickets. Checks are also conducted on trains to detect transferred tickets sold to passengers by unauthorised agents. Passengers found travelling on transferred tickets are treated as ticketless passengers and are charged railways' dues plus penalty. Touts apprehended are handed over to Police for prosecution by Courts under Railway Act and defaulting railway staff are taken under D&AR Rules. Special drives are also launched during summer rush and Durga Pooja holidays to eliminate menace of unauthorised sale of tickets. Public are also advised through public address system and media not to buy tickets from unauthorised sources. During 1992-93, 2269 touts were apprehended in the checks/raids and 9608 transferred tickets were detected in the checks on trains.
